Notifications by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

GENERAL AND REVENUE.

No. G. 5747—G. M. 289-08-1, dated Bangalore, 7th April 1909.

A Competitive Examination of approved candidates will be held in the Public Offices, Bangalore, on Monday, the 15th November 1909 and the following days, for the admission of Probationary Assistant Commissioners into the Mysore Civil Service, during the year 1909.

2. Candidates must not be over 25 years of age on the 15th November 1909, and must have graduated in Arts in an Indian or other University; provided that, if a candidate is not a native of or domiciled in Mysore, he must be a graduate of either the Madras or the Bombay University.

3. Candidates for admission to the examination should send in their applications to the Secretary to Government, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore, so as to reach him on or before the 3rd June 1909, stating the Optional Subject in which they wish to be examined

Applications should be in the appended Form A, printed copies of which can be had from the office of the Secretary to Government, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore, or the office of the Inspector-General of Education, Bangalore.

4. No candidate shall be registered unless he has attached to his application either a Treasury Receipt showing that he has paid into a Treasury belonging to the Government of Mysore, a sum of Rs. 50, or a Postal Money Order for Rs. 50 payable to the Secretary to Government, General and Revenue Departments.

5. Every candidate should forward with his application the following certificates and statement:—

(1) A certificate of birth.—

This may be a certificate from the Registrar of Births, a baptismal certificate, or a certificate from a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, who shall give it only after satisfying himself that the date of birth given is correct by means of the applicant's horoscope or authenticated extracts from school registers or such other evidence as he may consider sufficient.

(2) A certificate of good moral character. This certificate must be dated not earlier than the 1st January 1909, and must be granted by a person of known respectability, not a relative, who has been intimately acquainted with the candidate for at least the preceding three years.

(3) A certificate or certificates of progress and conduct from the authorities of the College or Colleges where the candidate has been educated.

(4) Evidence showing the occupation of the candidate's father or guardian and the social status of the candidate's family.

(5) A provisional certificate, in Form B appended, from a Medical Officer not below the rank of a Civil Surgeon or from a District Medical Officer, that the candidate is possessed of a good physical constitution and is fitted for the active duties of an executive officer.

(6) A statement showing when and in what branches, if any, and in what class or classes the candidate has passed the B. A. Degree Examination.

6. Such of the registered applicants, as may be approved by His Highness the Maharaja, will alone be admitted to the Competitive Examination. Their names will be published in the Mysore Gazette not later than the 17th June 1909.

7. Approved candidates, whose names appear in the list published under the last preceding para, must appear before a Medical Board at Bangalore on a day to be notified by Government, and only such of them as may be passed by the Medical Board will be allowed to proceed to the Examination.

8. The fee paid by any candidate who may not be approved by His Highness the Maharaja, or who, having been approved by His Highness, may not be passed by the Medical Board, will be returned.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to lay down the following rules for the guidance of Benches of Magistrates in the State, constituted under Section 15 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Regulation No. II of 1904.

1. The Bench shall try such cases or classes of cases as the District Magistrate may, by special or general order, from time to time, direct.

2. The District Magistrate shall fix the place and the dates and hours at which the Bench shall sit.

Provided that the Bench may hold one or more adjourned sittings, if this is found necessary for the disposal of business or of part-heard cases.

3. The Chairman of the Bench for the time being shall be the Magistrate of highest powers present at a sitting. Where two or more are of equal powers, the Bench may elect its own Chairman, provided always that it shall be in the discretion of the District Magistrate to appoint the Chairman for each time of sitting, or generally.

The Chairman with one other member shall form a quorum.

4. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to maintain order, conduct the proceedings of the Court, and exercise all the functions in that behalf usually exercised by a Magistrate when sitting alone. It shall be open to any Member of the Bench to put any questions to parties or witnesses, either direct or through the Chairman, as the latter may deem advisable, and to suggest any matter for the Chairman's consideration.

5. In the trial of the ordinary cases the Chairman shall generally record the evidence and judgment; but such duty may, with his consent, be performed by any one of his colleagues.

In the trial of summary cases where the Bench has been invested with summary powers, the necessary record shall be prepared by the Chairman or one of his colleagues; but, in every case, the record must be signed by each Member of the Bench who is present.

6. Each Member of the Bench shall have a voice in deciding as to the admissibility of evidence and in the finding and sentence. Differences of opinion shall be settled by the votes of the majority of the Magistrates present, the Chairman having the casting vote.

No. J. 3194—Police 156-08-2, dated 19*th April* 1909.

The following rules regarding the carriage of arms by travellers going into China are published for general information:—

1. Every respectable foreigner entering China from abroad, by sea or land, may carry in his luggage, for self-defence, one pistol and one revolver and a supply of cartridges for the same not exceeding 500 rounds in all, but must declare them at the time of entry to the customs, who will release them after examination. Any contravention of this provision entails confiscation of the arms, etc., not declared.

2. Foreigners, duly provided with passports, proceeding to the interior of China, or to Tibet, Mangolia, Turkistan, etc., will be allowed to carry with them, declaration having been duly made, arms and ammunition for self-defence not exceeding twice the quantities fixed above.

3. No other arms may be imported by foreigners for self-defence under the above provisions except pistols and short-barrelled revolvers carried on the person.

4. Every respectable foreigner entering China from abroad, by sea or land, may carry in his luggage not more than three sporting guns and a supply of cartridges for the same not exceeding 3,000 rounds in all, but must declare them at the time of entry into the customs, who will release them after examination and payment of duty. Any contravention of this provision entails confiscation of the guns, etc., not declared. In the event of old guns being thus imported with fresh ammunition both may be passed free of duty.

5. The expression "Sporting guns and cartridges imported by foreigners" refers exclusively to shot guns and ammunition for same. Military arms and ammunition must not be fraudulently imported under any pretext.

(N. B.—The importation of sporting rifles is not provided for, such importation being of rare occurrence, but no difficulties will be raised whenever a request for their importation shall be addressed to the (Chinese) Commissioner of Customs through the medium of the British Consul.)
